The rose garden was so lovely in early fall; the fragrance so delightfully heady, the warmth of the sun so delicious. For just a wee moment our lovely Mademoiselle Bru was caught in a delightful reverie, sinking down on the warm bench with her fresh cut blooms she closed her eyes to breathe in the sweetness of the afternoon. "Awaken, my dear!" At the gentle whisper from her sweetheart, she turned and opened her beautiful blue eyes with a languid smile; refreshed from her brief pause in the garden

14" Early Bru Fashion Surprise with two lovely faces on swivel neck on bisque shoulder plate on sturdy kid body with beautifully stitched fingers. This precious Poupee is dressed in a sumptuous camel silk gown embossed with trails of rose buds; garnished with burnished - red antique velvet ribbon and flounces of ecru lace over layers of freshly pressed petticoats and pantaloons. Lovely camel leather boots over red stockings. Claret colored antique glass eardrops and matching bead necklace are complimented by her fashionably styled coiffure and lovely lace and rose-graced bonnet. A spectacular and oh so rare to find treasure - $14,500

All the Bébés have complied with the standard of Beauty that comes with being part of the Beautiful Bébés Antique Dolls Collection! This lovely 18" earliest 6 over EJ is no exception! Exquisite modeling of her pressed bisque head with mauve and rose shading of features and lovely rich brown eyes in deep coffee tone. She has applied ears and original Jumeau wig. Her shell pink antique dress and hat are the perfect shade for her coloring & she is adorned with a bejeweled pendant watch. She resides on her original signed eight ball jointed body and stands 18". This is one to cherish. A timeless treasure - $14,500

What a wonderful day it had been; full of new adventures in the city visiting all the cousins! Now the sun was sinking and her lovely blue eyes were growing heavy with sleep. Just a few moments with her head nestled against Aunt Clara's feather pillows was all it took... Elysse tumbled into slumber

Simply superb 8" all bisque mignonette with rare blue sleep eyes. Beautifully molded hands and fingers, exquisite pale bisque with rose tinted cheeks and lips, multi-stroke blonde - brown eyebrows, original waist length mohair wig with intricate curled bangs. Completely intact pink silk ruche dress with gathered rows of lace and fetching pink silk bonnet to match. She also has superb black five strap molded boots with little heels and her original lace embellished organdy pantaloons. This is one of the most exquisite and rare to find mignonettes of this caliber I have yet to find. She has come from the estate of her original and only owner who cherished her all her life. $6800

If Love could be measured by Beauty, then this Earliest First Series Portrait Jumeau 0 is Rich Beyond Measure. This amazing

Bébé has the most exquisite and captivating face. Her perfect shade of pale bisque is blessed with warm rose tint of cheeks and full lips. Her huge blue almond spiral threaded eyes are framed by perfectly executed eye cuts. She has a lovely original patina to her marked eight ball jointed body that is in wonderful condition. She has been blessed with a superior antique velvet coat dress of ivory velvet with royal blue soutache trim and mother of pearl buttons. She also has a lovely blue and grey silk dress of antique fabrics crafted in a traditional Bébé style (not shown). Her amazing face is framed by soft curls of her antique mohair wig and crowned with a complimentary French bonnet. Antique leather shoes and a beautiful parasol with painted china handle complete her. This sixteen inch beauty is rare to find so marked and so brilliantly created. Please call or email for pricing

Celeste was so happy having spent the day with her dear cousin from the country. Tomorrow mother would be taking them to see the ballet! Now, overtaken by sleep dancers gracefully soared through her dreams...

Young portrayal of Empress Eugenie captured in a fashionable and original two piece silk walking suit in a lovely blue complete with pendant watch. Her beautiful face is framed with soft golden curls crowned with a jaunty straw chapeau with crimson feather. Fifteen inches of loveliness. $5700 - Parasol available separately - $995

Diminutive 8.5" Sie C Steiner with sapphire blue lever eyes and unbelievably adorable face with very full lips. On original wooden body, original mohair waved wig with cardboard pate, precious antique frock, leather shoes and charming bonnet.
